Here is what you get

PROFESSIONAL MEMBERSHIP INCLUDES

One on One

Spend 30 minutes with Marie reviewing your business plan and objectives and create an action plan that will motivate you to keep moving forward. This is quality time focused on you and the plan you want to build professionally and personally.

Monthly Community Engagement

Build relationships with like-minded women at our bi-monthly Women4Women networking meetings. W4W Community members have access to all meetings and are encouraged to participate in as many as they want. The W4W Community genuinely wants to lift, push, and pull other women forward toward success. As our community grows so will our locations and so will your opportunities.

Women4Women Directory

Connect and support other Phat Mavericks™ in our Women4Women Community with ease. Each active member will be listed in our Phat Partners directory where the services and product we need to support our community can be easily accessed. This is a public page so members will reap the benefits of all website visitors.

Featured Phat Maverick™

Each meeting we will feature and highlight one of our W4W members. This is a wonderful way to get to know one another professionally and personally. The featured Phat Maverick™ will also be featured on our website sharing a short bio, picture and business information.

Social Media

You will have access to our private Facebook group where you will receive tools, motivation, and support from women committed to lifting, pushing, and pulling you forward. Our business networking group works on many fronts to build relationships and opportunities for our members.

Rewarding Relationships

Whether you are building your professional network, looking for meaningful and supportive relationships with like-minded women or you need a push toward healthy living goals, you will find it as an involved Phat Maverick™ within the Women4Women Community.

15% Discount on all merchandise and member discount on all events

Women4Women Community Goals

The W4W Community is a relationship building group of like-minded women who are committed to lifting pushing and pulling one another personally and professionally. The community is women only and is focused on providing the tools & resources necessary to achieve growth in business and healthy living. Too often women are willing to sacrifice the most important things and if we all work together we can all have success and live a long and healthy life. With a purpose driven agenda and our commitment to each other, there are no reasons for rules. It's all about building relationships!

- To create a professional and personal community of women committed to supporting one another professionally and personally
- To manage a purpose driven agenda that promotes a tangible action plan
- To build a membership to include professionals, self-employed, health enthusiast and all women wanting to build relationships
- To create an environment that fosters honest and supportive relationships
- To build a community where relationships drive referrals and support
- To promote relationships without rules
- To provide gatherings that are convenient in location to the members
- To add locations as the group grows every 50 members
- To diversify locations for cross pollination of relationships and opportunity
- To build a community of well diverse group of women
- To ensure all members leave meetings with a tangible goal and action plan
- To create a safe environment where all members feel accepted as they are
- To create an annual business expo where members can show case their business
- To work with the community on healthy living seminars
- To offer workshops that will inspire women to achieve goals
- To build community to 400 members by 2020
- To provide tools and resources to the community that will allow women to achieve their goals
- To give a portion of our membership revenue to a local charity
- To be a part of lifting, pushing & pulling women forward both professionally and personally
